ANNOUNCEMENT OF MRS. JENNY WONG'S RESIGNATION FROM THE POST OF PRINCIPAL AND APPOINTMENT OF ACTING PRINCIPAL.

20 December 2017

Dear Members of the Marymount Community,

Mrs. Jenny Wong has submitted a letter of resignation from the post of Principal in Marymount Secondary School, effective 1 January 2018, due to unexpected and urgent family matters. The IMC understands that Mrs. Wong needs to give priority to her family welfare, and family and principalship are not really compatible. Hence, the IMC has respectfully acceded to Mrs. Wong's decision and accepted her resignation. We give appreciation to her service in our School in the past few months.

The IMC has appointed the Senior Vice-Principal, Mrs. Catherine Li, to the post of Acting Principal until such time as a new Principal can be appointed. We are extremely grateful to Mrs. Li for her generosity in serving Marymount at this critical time. Mrs. Li, of course, brings her long years of service in Marymount to her new role. Mrs. Li is very capable and has a solid understanding of our school ethos, tradition and culture. We are confident that, backed up by our very competent management team and dedicated teachers, she will lead MSS according to our vision and mission in education and implement our School Development Plan.

As Mrs. Wong leaves us, let us keep her in our thoughts and prayers as she responds responsibly to her family's needs.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Éadaoin K. P. Hui, C.L.C.

School Supervisor and

Chairperson, Incorporated Management Committee,

For and on Behalf of the School' Sponsoring Body.
